A European vacation. A luggage mix-up. A note from a secret admirer. Meet two single parents who think they're too busy to date. Kuroneko Book Club: [Review] In The Bag - Kate Klise I love being surprised by a book. When I read the premise of Kate Klise's In the Bag, I thought it would probably be trite and maybe silly: " A European vacation.A luggage mix-up. A note from a secret admirer." But Kate Klise's debut adult novel (she writes children's mystery books) is anything but trite and silly.I loved it. SmallWorld
