JUNCTION Overview:Reebops (Marshmella magicus) are an imaginary species that reproduce at a rapid rate. In this activity, you will assume the role of two Reebop parents reproducing to make an offspring. You will simulate meiosis, fertilization, and then build your baby Reebop by decoding the alleles on the chromosomes. Genetics Reebops are imaginary animals, made from marshmallows (or foam packing pieces). Their features are determined by the characteristics encoded in their chromosomes . Both parents are heterozygous for all their characteristics (except their sex). Making Reebops: a model for meiosis 12. Based on your baby reebop's traits, make a 'shopping list' of the parts you'll need to build your baby by filling in Table 1 on your answer sheet. All baby reebops have a head so the minimum number of marshmallows you need is two (one body segment & a head). Make a Baby Reebop Lab - Madison County School District Reebop Genetics

Genetic Concepts Students will complete up to step four in the Reebop Lab. The second class period should start with a class review of genetics using the Power Point concept questions followed by a continuation of the Reebop Lab and conclusion questions.

RATIONALE: Students need to have a basic knowledge of genetics, traits, and chromosomes.

Examining Biology Lesson Plan:

Connecting Meiosis and

Inheritance What is the evolutionary significance of this?The evolutionary significance having 4 legs instead of 6 legs is that a reebop having six legs would more likely be able to walk or run faster than a reebop with only four legs. The reebop with six legs will also be more stable and would be able to stand easier than the reebop with four legs. Reebop Lab - WriteWork Genetics Health and disease Energy Horizontal gene transfer . Transformation of bacteria by horizontal gene transfer is highly significant to the rate at which bacterial populations acquire resistance to antibiotics. It forces us to rethink models of evolution based on strictly vertical inheritance patterns. ... Horizontal gene transfer Point out how the collection of chromosomes is a random process, pulling one allele from either parents' genes to determine the traits inherited by the Reebop. After students make their Reebop, check their finished product against the genotypes listed on the Lab sheet. Affirm the accuracy of their work or re-direct them to go back and re-work their Reebop. Ninth grade Lesson Modeling Genetics | BetterLesson Reebop Genetics. HW: Extra credit Punnett due FRIDAY Study for Chapter test FRIDAY.
