written the most personable and involving whodunit I've read all year." – The Los Angeles Times

The Final Detail – Harlan Coben

Myron is determined to prove Esperanza's innocence. But she isn't speaking. And neither is her lawyer, except to say that Myron would do best to keep his distance, lest he hurt her case. Only Myron is already too close to the case to back away. For twelve years ago a young agent tried to help an up-and-coming athlete.
